

Thank you for your interest in the Old West Festival. As we plan for second season in 2009, we are pleased to present to the public some of the finest entertainment for our period event. We will only be as successful as the great people who help make it happen! Thanks for your consideration in joining the Old West Festival.

Enclosed you will find the Application Form and supplementary information.

2009 OLD WEST FESTIVAL

GOAL

The Goal of our Festival is to create a fun-filled family atmosphere surrounded with the allure of the Old West. We will recreate Dodge City 1878. A place where the customers may "step back in time" and enjoy the unique offerings (food, crafts, performances) available only at the Old West Festival. Every participant is expected to maintain the look and feel of the American Old West in their dress, language, and booth appearance.

DATES

The Old West Festival will open its first season with FIVE weekends from Saturday September 12th through October 11th, including one Student Day (September 18) for a total of ELEVEN days.

HOURS

10:00 AM until 6:00 PM. The Student Day hours are 9:00 AM to 2:30 PM.

LOCATION

Our Location is convenient to all areas of Cincinnati. Just 15 minutes east of Eastgate Mall, only one mile off State Route 32.

TICKETS

$10 for adults, $6 for children (5-12), under 5 free. Free parking.

PATRONS

With 2009 serving as only our second year it is difficult to estimate our attendance. We had over 10,000 folks join us last year, and we expect a huge increase in attendance this year!

COSTUME

Every volunteer must be in period dress. No exceptions. Do not wear tennis shoes, blue denim jeans, shorts, t-shirts or modern western attire.

OWNERSHIP

Drew Deimling, President of the Old West Festival, LLC, which owns the Festival site.
